SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

3 years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Timothy Glover
CASE NUMBER: 23cr438-1STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office. You must continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. You must contribute to the cost of services rendered based on your ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the health care provider.

The defendant has significant mental health concerns that need monitoring and medication; specifically, a diagnosis of schizophrenia and psychotropic medications (see PSR ¶¶ 85-89). Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3563(b)(9), the Court may order that the defendant undergo available medical, psychiatric, or psychological treatment. This condition serves the statutory sentencing purpose of providing the defendant with needed correctional treatment in the most effective manner under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2)(D).

2. You will participate in an outpatient treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether you have reverted to using drugs or alcohol. You must contribute to the cost of services rendered based on your ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the substance use disorder treatment provider.

The defendant has a recent history of drug use with Ecstasy, marijuana and K2 (see PSR ¶ 90). Substance misuse can facilitate or instigate criminal behavior. Participation in drug treatment and testing may reduce the risk to reoffend, and this condition may also help the defendant's efforts to successfully rehabilitate. This condition serves the statutory sentencing purpose of providing the defendant with needed correctional treatment in the most effective manner under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2)(D).

3. You must submit to a search of your person, property, residence, office, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), cell phones, and other devices or media used for electronic communications, data storage, cloud storage, or network storage. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when there is reasonable suspicion that you have violated a condition of your supervision or committed a new crime, and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation or crime. The search must be conducted by a United States Probation Officer, although other law enforcement officers may assist the probation officer. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

It is recommended that you be supervised by the district of residence.

The instant offense involved firearms and ammunition (see PSR ¶¶ 12-18). Under 18 U.S.C. § 3563(b)(22), the court may order that the defendant "satisfy such other conditions as the court may impose." This condition allows the probation officer to promote public safety through effective oversight of higher risk defendants and by assisting with rehabilitation efforts. The condition may also deter criminal conduct and permit a probation officer to intervene quickly when reasonable suspicion exists that a defendant has engaged in criminal conduct or otherwise violated a condition of supervision. In light of the offense conduct and the defendant's role in the instant offense, a search condition is imposed to enhance deterrence to future criminal activity by the defendant, and to assist the probation officer in ensuring community safety. This condition serves the statutory sentencing purposes of public protection. 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2)(C).

CASE NUMBER: 23cr438-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

4. You must reside in a Residential Re-Entry Center (RRC) for a period of six (6) months. During your time residing at the RRC, you may not be permitted to leave the facility except for employment, education, religious services, medical, mental health treatment, substance use treatment, attorney visits, probation appointments, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as preapproved by the U.S. Probation Officer and the Residential Reentry Center Case Manager. While at the RRC, you must follow the facility's rules and regulations and the probation officer's instructions regarding the implementation of this court directive, including a subsistence payment to the facility based upon income earned.

You must reside at the Residential Reentry Center, located at 104 Gold Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, except if the defendant finds other housing approved by the Probation Department before the expiration of the six (6) months.

This condition serves the statutory sentencing purpose of providing the defendant with a transition to civilian life with support.
